Disturbances in England and Ireland.
A dispatch from London says another outrage had just been perpetrated at Dublin. Telegrams from there give the following particulars: An unusually large number of letters have recently been received at the post-office at Dublin, directed to prominent officials. Each one of these letters was loaded with explosive matter, designed to kill the persons to whom they were addressed. Several of them exploded before their nature was ascertained, but up to this time no person has been killed. One of the policemen of the city, who received one of these letters, was horribly mangled by the explosion which occurred when he opened it. It is not known how many of these dangerous missives have been despatched. Considerable excitement prevails both in Dublin and elsewhere throughout the country, in consequence of the discovery. The authorities are actively investigating the matter, and will no doubt, probe the matter to the bottom. The Times has an editorial on the Fenian question. It says no less than 30,000 special constables have been sworn in and are now serving in London. The writer calls attention to the grave public danger, and calls upon the provincial cities and towns to emulate the precautionary measures of the metropolis.

A dispatch from London, dated the 28th inst., says: "The Fenians seem to be unusually active all over the country. Nearly every hour in the day dispatches are received by the authorities, announcing either a contemplated movement by the Brotherhood or its absolute occurrence. Telegrams of quite a serious nature have been received from Cork, giving the details of another Fenian coup-de-main. About midnight, on Friday, a large body of men with blackened faces stormed the Martello tower, near Cork. The guard of the tower was overcome and scattered, and the victors hastily collected together a considerable quantity of arms and ammunition and escaped with it without molestation. The late operations of the Fenians have had the effect of rekindling the public excitement which had nearly died out. Many improbable rumors are afloat, including one that a Fenian cruiser had been seen off the Irish coast, and was chased away by the British war vessels. A man was arrested in the city last evening on the charge of having fired the fuse which caused the recent terrible explosion at Clerkenwell. From information in the hands of the authorities, it is believed the true culprit has at last been captured.

Radical Meeting in Richmond.
An immense mixed crowd assembled on Thursday night, at the African church, in response to a call signed by Wardwell, Oliver, &c. The object of the meeting was to counteract the influence of Hunnicutt and his co-workers; resolutions to that effect were drawn up and ready to be presented to the meeting, when Hunnicutt, in his usual "unlucky" way, introduced himself and led off in one of his usual speeches, insinuating that the negroes must live, and they would be justified in using any means to effect that end. (One old darkey said in a loud tone that his people should starve before they should steal.) He abused those in charge of the Freedmen's Bureau, even advocating their removal, and was so loud in his clamorings, that one O'Hara interrupted to him, when he awoke to a sense of what he was saying, and offered resolutions thanking General Brown for aid rendered to the freedmen. The "Friend and Hero" was often interrupted, and it was evident that he was not the same personage among the negroes that he was a short time since.

Wardwell, Dr. Calliner, and many others left in disgust, as the object of the meeting had been defeated. The crowd were harangued by speeches from Porter, Harper and others.—Rich. Eng.
The Richmond Dispatch has a report of Hunnicutt's speech referred to above. He said: "There is corn, and wheat, and flour, and bacon, and turkeys, and chickens, and wood, and coal, in the State, and the colored people would have them before they would starve!" The Dispatch calls the attention of General Schofield to these efforts to excite an ignorant mob to rapine and plunder.

REPORT FROM VIRGINIA.—A special dispatch to the N. Y. Herald dated Charlotte county, Virginia, says: "Throughout all the counties named below a reign of terror prevails. The freedmen have become desperate awaiting the distribution of farms, and now seek revenge by house burning, cattle slaying, and other outrages. The counties of Amelia, Nottoway, Prince Edward, Halifax, Mecklenburg, and Pittsylvania are deluged with such outrages. Murder, arson, and incendiarism are of nightly occurrence, and a war of races seems to be inevitable. The civil authorities are powerless to protect, and military posts are so remote that the whites have determined to defend themselves in different ways, as their defence may be, but the resolution is death before negro supremacy. The forty acres and two mules promised the negroes at Christmas not being forthcoming, has caused this terrible state of affairs."

JUDGE BUSTEED WOUNDED.—A dispatch from Mobile, Ala., dated the 28th, says: District Attorney I. V. B. Martin met Judge Busteed, of the U. S. Court, this morning, in front of the custom-house, and said: "Judge, will you allow that indictment against me to take its course?" Judge Busteed replied: "Sir, the law must take its course." Martin then drew a revolver, and fired three shots at Busteed, who fell with a ball below the breast bone, and another in the right leg. Martin had been indicted by the United States Grand Jury for revenue frauds and extortion. He is now in jail. Judge Busteed's wounds are not considered mortal.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
Without making a useless harangue, I will say to my friends and the public that I am now prepared to supply all of the tinware in the way of STOVES. It is time lost to undertake to look for anything better than can be found in my store. I have something new in the way of HEATING STOVES, which cannot be surpassed in style, or beauty of design. To one and all I will say that whatever I sell I warrant to answer the purpose I sold it for. I therefore invite my country friends to call and examine my stock of COOKING and HEATING STOVES before purchasing elsewhere, confident that they will not go away displeased. I would also enumerate amongst my stock a fine lot of TIN WARE, of my own manufacture, and made by very experienced workmen; also, TINED SAFES, PRESERVING KETTLES, Fruit Cans, Fine Japanese and Planchished Ware and Chamber Sets to which I would call the attention of the public. Coffee Urns, Tea Urns, Waffle Irons, Children's Toys, and a fine lot of Block Tin Ware and other articles which are too numerous to mention. 200 Every patron obtains a Watch by this arrangement, costing but $10, while it may be worth $100. No partiality shown.
We wish to immediately dispose of the above magnificent stock. Certificates, naming the articles, are placed in sealed envelopes, and each envelope is numbered. Drawers are entitled to an article named on their certificate upon payment of ten Dollars, which is a Watch worth $100, or one worth $10. The return of any of our certificates entitles you to the article named thereon upon payment of ten Dollars, irrespective of its value, as no article is sold less than $10 is named on any certificate. It will at once be seen that this is no lottery, but a straightforward legitimate transaction, which may be participated in even by the most fastidious.
A single certificate will be sent by mail, post paid, upon receipt of 25 cents. For $1, a return for 24 thirty-draw and elegant premium for $5, sixty six and more valuable premium for $10, one hundred and most superb watch for $15.—To Agents or those wishing employment, this is a rare opportunity. It is a legitimately conducted business, fully authorized by the Government, and open to every one in successful certainty. Try us!
